

Personal: Eamon and his wife Brit moved to Bend in 2016 with their two dogs. Eamon enjoys anything that involves being outside and being active. He especially enjoys long camping weekends with the whole family.

Playing: Eamon played premiere level soccer through high school. He now plays recreational indoor for fun.

Professional: Eamon coached for a youth development program in Seattle for several years while attending college before moving into Special Education. Obtaining his Masters allowed him to become a Board Certified Behavior Analyst and work directly with families impacted by Autism.