

Personal: Emily spends her free time doing pretty much anything that involves being outside including mountain biking, skiing, running, hiking, camping, and of course...playing soccer!

Playing: Emily has been playing soccer since the age of three. Growing up in Indianapolis, IN she was fortunate enough to successfully play for numerous club teams throughout the years including FC Pride and Carmel United. She also participated in the Olympic Development Program and enjoyed success as a 4-year varsity player at Lawrence North High School. Emily went on to become a student-athlete and team captain at Hanover College where she helped her team to 2 HCAC regular season conference championships, 1 HCAC conference tournament championship, and Hanover's first NCAA Tournament Appearance. Emily primarily played and started as a center midfielder throughout her career and was named to the HCAC All Conference Team.

Professional: Emily's competitive coaching career started with the Bend FC Timbers in 2013. Since this time Emily has coached numerous BFCT competitive teams and has also enjoyed coaching in the BFCT Junior Academy. Emily has also been a head coach for the Oregon RTC program since 2014.
