

Personal: Gio loves martial arts and trains in the stand-up disciplines of Muay Thai, Kickboxing and Boxing. Outside of soccer and martial arts, Gio enjoys an active outdoor lifestyle and takes advantage of the diverse Central Oregon landscape. Gio is originally from San Francisco California, he graduated from St. Mary's High School in Stockton, California and completed his Bachelor's Degree in Public Relations at Immaculata University in suburban Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Playing: Gio played club soccer across Northern California, and was a member of teams that competed in and won tournaments such as San Diego Nomads Tournament, San Diego Surf Cup and the United Soccer Leagues (USL) Super-Y League North American Championships. Individually, Gio was selected and assigned to the USL's ODP National Camp as one of the top players in the Western Region.

Gio Played three years of college soccer at Immaculata University. Gio was a three-year captain and lead Immaculata to their first ever conference playoff berth. Gio graduated with distinctions as the school's first ever conference player of the week, earned First-Team All-Conference recognition and set records for career points, assists and game-winning goals.

Professional: Gio has coached for the Olympic Development Program in Eastern Pennsylvania and Northern California. Gio has enjoyed learning from and being immersed in different soccer philosophies and cultures. Gio began his club coaching career in Northern California and he is excited about continuing his career in Central Oregon. Gio operates a soccer-specific private training program, focusing on private training, small group training and small clinics for players of all ages and ability levels.

- Eastern Pennsylvania ODP Evaluating Assistant, Instructor
- California North ODP Assistant Coach, Scout, Evaluating Assistant
- Dublin United Head Coach, Coach Mentor, Camp Director
- Ballistic United Head Coach
- ACF Fiorentina Basic Course
- ACF Fiorentina Advanced Course

QUOTE: "Never underestimate the heart of a champion."