

Personal: Joe is looking forward to moving back to Bend and enjoying the mountain, lakes and rivers, golf courses and everything outdoors with his Carolina Dingo named Jack. If he is not outside, you'll most likely find him studying neuroscience, how to be a better coach/person, reading, writing, cooking and doing his own brain centered training. Joe is also looking forward to continuing his passion and profession in his personal business as 'The Bend Brain Guy.' A Neuro-Athletic Performance Coach focused on helping athletes improve athletic ability, prevent injuries and get back to sport post injury.

Playing: Joe played his youth goalkeeping career at Westside Metros where his team won three state championships and reached the quarterfinals of the regional tournament. He was team captain for two years and awarded first team all-league and all state at Southridge High School. Joe went on to play four years at Linfield College where he graduated with a B.S. in Exercise Science

Professional: Joe started his coaching career as the Goalkeeper Coach for the Men and Women at Linfield College. He has also worked as the Boys Goalkeeper Coach at McMinnville High School and Women's Goalkeeper/Assistant Coach at Willamette University. Joe is moving back to Bend from San Diego where he has been the Sport Performance and Goalkeeper Coach for the boys Development Academy at Albion SC for the past three years.
